Canada Is Booming
$50 a Minute
A Prince Too Popular
$5000 Per Corpse

By Arthur Brisbane

BUSINESS in Canada is booming, new high records indicated in many directions. That is good news for this country, prosperous neighbors are hard to beat.

Canadians know how to do some things that, like the serpent on the rock, are too much for us.

In Canada, Government can and does own and run railroads successfully. They do not admit us we do that our public men lack intelligence and honesty needed for public ownership.

In Canada they consider the uses of hydro-electric power first, even the small farmers, and the power companies come second.

Here our power companies come first and the consuming public nowhere. The consumer to the big company is what the young Frenchman was to Napoleon, simply useful material. It is some comfort, not much, to realize that the law of eminent domain can always adjust that—in case the people ever learn to vote.

Porcupine, in Canada is "delivering gold at the rate of $50 a minute." That seems like a great deal of money, but is not such a great deal, in these days. Fifty dollars a minute, eight hours a day, 300 days a year is only $720,000 yearly.

We have citizens to whom that would seem a pitifully small income.

The late Judge Gary, before this country got into the war, said of one prosperous American, "I know he has at least twelve million dollars a month income, because I have borrowed that much from him, for the steel company. I think his actual income is nearer twenty millions a month."

"Only" $12,000,000 a month would be $144,000,000 a year, five per cent on nearly three billions.

You cannot judge by income tax returns because the great fortunes are held in corporations and care is taken not to let the money out in taxable dividends—entirely in accordance with law.

It's possible to be too popular, as little babies, kissed almost to death, can testify. The Prince of Wales also knows it. British for hunt and steeplechase authorities have decided to keep away crowds of hysterical women. At such a rush to see the prince, when he rides, shrieking encouragement at him and his horse, frightening the latter so that mistakes in jumping and dangerous falls result.

A Texas grand jury will investigate charges that murder rings are formed to collect rewards from bankers.

The Texas bankers offered $5000 each for bank burglars, dead or alive, especially dead. Ingenious gentlemen have been causing individuals, not really bank burglars, to pose as such, then killing them and collecting rewards.

Bankers must be protected, but have bankers a right to establish laws of their own, unlike State laws? And what about offering to murder when you incur a reward for a corpse? The penalty for attempted bank burglary is not instant death, but the bankers' reward offer makes that the law.

Suppose merchants offered $5,000,000, dead or alive, for a bank burglar guilty of charging unscrupulous interest? That would be technically, as level as the bankers' generous offer for burglar corpses.

FIND DEATH SPOT CLUE IN STEWART SLAYING

A sensation is due today in the murder of Marguerite Stewart, teacher in the Beverly School for Deaf Mutes, according to the State police.

They intimated that the mysterious development may be the location of the spot where the girl was murdered.

The arrangement of Frederick H. Stewart, young married business man of Framingham, indicted for the murder, which was scheduled for today may be postponed, according to Dist. Atty. Robert T. Bushnell, because of this new development.

State Detectives Edward J. Sherlock and Edward P. O'Sullivan, with Sgt. Curtin of the Concord police, spent Easter Sunday in two hunks. First, they attempted fruitfully to find the hat the girl wore when she left the Beverly school on Thursday, March 22, the day before she was slain and her body found by a Concord roadster.

Fuller Calls Reading Witness KLAN TRAINED OWN CHIEFS

DEATH PLOTS OF KLUX LEADERS ARE REVEALED BY EX-GRAND DRAGON

"We'll have to send Coburn down the road with a man who will come back alone."

Cold, calculated, efficient, cold-blooded, and ruthless, these were the words used by the ex-Grand Dragon of the Ku Klux Klan, who today revealed the death plots of the Klan leaders.

In his deposition, the ex-Grand Dragon, who today revealed the death plots of the Klan leaders, stated that the Klan was a "Grand Dragon" of the Klan in Revere.

In his deposition, the ex-Grand Dragon, who today revealed the death plots of the Klan leaders, stated that the Klan was a "Grand Dragon" of the Klan in Revere.

And today Stephenson's deposition told of actual discussion of plans for murder, plans which were actually carried out when Capt. William S. Coburn, one of the original organizers under Colonel Simmons, was assassinated in Atlanta.

Stephenson's deposition was taken in the Indiana State Penitentiary in Michigan City, Ind., for use in a suit in Pittsburgh brought by five rebellious members of the Klan in Pennsylvania to prevent the hooded terrorists from prosecuting any business whatsoever in that State.

Chicago, April 9.—In the first chapter published Saturday, Stephenson told of the formation of the Klan, its early history and made the statement that the day Colonel Simmons was removed as head of the organization was the beginning of the end of the order.

Q.—You have stated that was the natal day of the destruction of the Ku Klux Klan. Do you mean by that that it has since departed from its original purpose? A.—That is exactly what I mean.

ANTANT PRIDE AGAIN CALLED TO STAND IN READING HEARING

DOCK WEEK READERS FOR PROBERS

In which Reading was a factor, Representative B. B. Sawyer, of Worcester, was attacked by "squad" and "squad" in a letter to Governor Fuller.

Twice following receipt of the letter by the Governor, Fuller was again today to testify at the hearing, and again today he was the first witness in the second week of the investigation started.

BUSY WEEK AHEAD

From all appearances this will be the last week allowed by the committee for presentation of evidence against the attorney-general. Chairman James, denying a request of Reading counsel, that a week's continuance be given after presentation of the State's case before the grand jury, suggested that all the evidence against the attorney-general be placed before the committee before Saturday.

To enable this to be accomplished the committee will sit in hearing on Friday.

Should the case against Reading be concluded before Friday, Chairman James said he would probably allow a continuance until Monday before the defense could begin its testimony regarding the Dodge case against Reading in his company with that organization, from whom he has admitted taking a $1,000 fee, in connection with the case for four days.

TALK WITH DETECTIVE

Fuller testified concerning a conference held in the office of Wood, a detective, in Court and Attorney Hammond asked him whether he had not expressed an opinion as to the propriety of the head of the United L. A. W. Association, in connection with the Dodge case, that he had not found evidence to send Fuller to jail.

Q—What were you looking for?
A—Anything I could find.
Q—Did he advise Reading to return his stock and that Reading did return it because of that advice?

Fuller replied that he believed that Wood had been improperly used, that the service the directors rendered him was not a service of the law, but a service of the law.

PRIDE ON THE STAND

Fuller testified that he had declined to confer with Maj. Hammond, counsel for the committee, and was asked why he said: "I thought I prefer to give my testimony direct."

Q—Did you have previously read the statement of the attorney-general, had you not?
A—Yes.

He said he acted neither in the capacity of counsel or as Assistant Attorney-General. "I was asked to hold certain stocks," he testified, "until certain things were done. What I did he could have asked the office boy to do."

He said he discussed the agreement with Reading, going over certain phases of it.

Q—What don't suppose the office boy could have done that, could he?
A—Yes.

'GOOD-OL-ERS' PLAN CRUISE

By BERT FORD

The "Good Will" cruise of members of the Chamber of Commerce to the West Indies and Central America proved such a success that the tourists are already advertising another expedition next year.

They plan a reunion in the near future and are now making plans that closed last evening when the ship was to leave for New York.

The last hours of the 6,000-mile voyage were marked by the most unfavorable weather of the cruise. A heavy rain was encountered late Saturday night, followed by a fog so dense that the Calumet had to creep along with frequent stops of her fog horn.

The fog lifted at dawn and Captain Harry Spencer brought his ship to the pier on the dot, as his customary custom. Tropical rain came on Saturday morning and was to overcast the day.

A splendid dinner Saturday night was well attended and a ditting celebration was held on the ship.

Quite a few relatives and friends of the "Good Will" pilgrims were on the ship when the ship left the pier at 11 A.M. after the ship had left the pier.

Customs inspection exacted little delay. A few minutes later the ship was under way for the cruise.

The voyagers were surprised and delighted to find such balmy weather when a steady wind and fine spring so much in evidence in the hands of the voyagers.

King's Chef to Speak

LOUIS EUGENE BAUDE, favorite chef of King Albert of Belgium and now chef of the new Hotel Commander in Cambridge, will give a lesson in practical cookery in the Martin Lee Kitchen next Wednesday, at 5:30 p. m.

Mr. Baude has been connected with many famous hotels on the continent and in this country, including the Marlborough Hotel in New York, N. Y. Ever since the opening of the Hotel Commander in Cambridge, Mr. Baude's creations have been sold in his fame among the patrons of the Tavern, as the beautiful discounter of this hotel is called.

If you have ever wished that you could prepare a planked steak at home that would have a real hotel flavor, don't fail to be on hand at 5:30—earlier—Wednesday, to secure a front seat.

For Mr. Baude will not only prepare a planked steak with its accompanying vegetables, but he will also tell the mysteries of potato soufflé—these airy-like potato balloons that are the envy and despair of the average housewife.

Mr. Baude will also prepare the San Sals, a combination of pineapple, celery, apple, walnut, etc. in real hotel Commander style, and last but not least, new and intriguing sandwiches and fillings.

Certainly you will not need any excuse for taking advantage of this wonderful opportunity to see a famous chef at work. We feel that it is most generous of Mr. Baude to be willing to share his secrets with you.

THE SCIENCE OF KEEPING YOUNG

STRENGTH inspires. Strength is coveted by all, because it spells power. It leads us to the fulfillment of our dreams and keeps us young. In its physical form, it finds its nourishment in the divine growth of nature. In its spiritual powers it finds its re-enforcement through the radiant energy that propels all things. Why keep 2 boxes of Chipso?

For the same reason you keep a broom upstairs and another downstairs—to save steps!

As thrifty a way of saving steps as we know is to keep two boxes of Chipso working for you, one at the kitchen sink, and the other by the washrub or washing machine!

This doubling-up of boxes doesn't mean using a single Chipso flake more. Yet when you want to soak clothes clean—or get through dishes 1/3 quicker, the white, work-saving flakes are on the spot, right where you can reach them.

The 25c box is so big you can dip your cup in—for a tubful of instant suds! And with same sized box on your kitchen shelf you will have enough Chipso for a month of dishwashings!

If you have depended upon Chipso suds to escape the rubbing and boiling of an old-time washday only, what a surprise a Chipso dishwashing will be! By soaking the grease off the dishes, Chipso suds saves your hands! Practically all you do is just rinse and wipe.

"Chipso is like a maid at dishwashing time. I put the china in the Chipso-suds while I'm drying the glass and silver. Then when I'm ready for the dishes, they're ready to rinse! I soak my pots and pans, too—and save my hands."

Mrs. A. R.—Lowell, Mass.

"Since I have used Chipso to soak my clothes clean, I never boil my wash any more. A half-hour or so of soaking gets the dirt so loose I can squeeze it out. Then a bit of rubbing on short bands cuffs—and I'm ready to rinse."

BARR LOVE SUIT IS DISMISSED

Manchester, N. H., April 9 (AP)—Fairfield Barr against James Cummings Barr of New Ipswich was dismissed by Judge Henry A. Barr in Superior Court today on the ground that "no prayer for a divorce or legal separation" was made. Counsel for Mrs. Barr announced they would file a new petition.

Mrs. Barr filed suit a month ago, charging Barr, who is the wealthy head of a street railway appliance business, had not lived with her for more than a year and had failed to provide for her. She also alleged that a large part of his income, which she estimated at $10,000 a year, was diverted by another woman who had given birth to a son. The name of the woman was not given.

MOTHER DOUBTS SUICIDE OF HUB ARTILLERYMAN

While news despatches from Honolulu today stated that Private George E. Chisholm of Battery H, 15th Coast Artillery, stationed at Fort Kamehameha, had hanged himself, his mother, Mrs. Clara Chisholm of 19 Maple St., Dorchester, said official notification had led her to believe his death was due to natural causes.

'MISSING GIRLS' FILM AT TWIN HOUSES

Agela Harold Lloyd has recaptured a big success as a comedian and film producer. His latest comedy "Speedy" is now showing at the Twin Houses.

"Speedy" is a fast-moving story, which keeps the audience on edge every minute. It is a fast-moving story, which keeps the audience on edge every minute. It is a fast-moving story, which keeps the audience on edge every minute.

The subject around which Harold Lloyd has built his plot is an antiquated horse-drawn street car. In this day and age, that in itself is novel enough, but the story car is only the beginning of things. One of the surprises in this latest effort, is the appearance of Phil Ruth, who figures in one of the best scenes of the picture. The picture is a comedy, and the performance adds to the already brilliant feature of the comedy.

"SKYSCRAPER" AT KEITH-ALBEE

William Boyd's new picture, "Sky-scraper," is the screen feature at the Keith-Albee Boston Theatre. It is a comedy that brings to the screen material rich in plot and a fresh idea of a man's life. The story is a comedy, and the performance adds to the already brilliant feature of the comedy.

MUSSOLINI WELCOMED AT FETE OF 'HOME FOLKS'

Miss April 9 (AP)—Dionisia Mussolini went among his fellow-countrymen of the Romagna region at a fete at the headquarters of the "Famiglia Romagna" today. This is an association composed of "exiles" from Romagna, comprising Romagna, Ferrara, Ravenna and Forli, living in Milan.

The Duke readily lapsed into the active dialect, obviously delighted at the warm reception the "home-folks" accorded him. He exclaimed: "Here I am among the people of my own soil, and I am might glad of it."

Robbed of Record

New York, April 9 (AP)—Although he broke the world's record for 12 miles in winning the Staten Island American Legion Marathon, Albert (Whitey) Michelson probably will not receive official credit for a new record because championship conditions were not met in the race. His time was 1:10:25, more than seven minutes under the record.

'Twixt Tee and Cup
By BILL GRIMES

Until the Massachusetts Golf Association tournament list was released there was a feeling that the date of the Mass open would be changed so as not to conflict with the Women's Golf Association of Boston championship. Mrs. E. H. Baker Jr., will defend her title at Weston during the week of May 21 and on Wednesday and Thursday of the same week the boys will be at Wollaston battling for the honors which Johnnie Farrell carried off last season at Sandy Burr.
